

VINDIGO PRESS

EYRIE TALES

NEWSLETTER VOL. 1

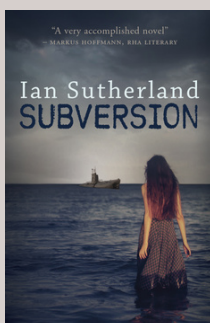

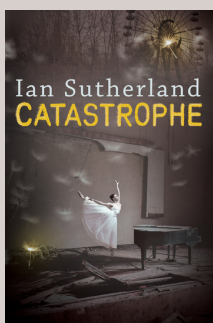

Vindigo Press

(Niche Cape Town-based publisher)

We greatly respect our readers' and writers' time and pledge to keep these communications few, brief and interesting.

"Launching African Authors"

HEARTFELT THANK YOU for all your enthusiastic support in launching the novel Catastrophe which we're delighted to report reached No.1 on Exclusive Books' fiction list at the end '22!

EARLY FEEDBACK has been great with phrases like 'a compelling voice', 'a tour de force', 'enthraling,' and this from published writer and editor, Joanne Hichens, 'Beautifully written, the lyrical voice of Lena is mesmeric as she tells the story, to her estranged daughter, of her husband's disappearance after an accident at the Pripyat nuclear power plant. Packed with intriguing twists and full of heart, this is a page-turner.'

If you enjoyed the story, PLEASE TAKE A MOMENT TO REVIEW the novel on platforms like Goodreads, Amazon or email us directly. Book sales are largely driven by word of mouth from trusted sources so our success depends on you, our much-valued readers!

IAN WILL BE SPEAKING ABOUT HIS BOOK at the Adam Small Literary festival in Pniel just outside Stellenbosch on Friday 24 February @ 10:50, and a private launch at Liberty Books in Elgin on the evening of Tuesday 28 February.

We are also planning A BOOK TOUR for Catastrophe so please let us know if you'd like to be involved in an event in your area by emailing steph@vindigopress.com.

Finally, we are excited to share our brand-new website www.vindigopress.com, where we will now be accepting submissions from local authors and enquiries for foreign publishing rights.

PS: Catastrophe and Ian's recently republished WWII suspense novel Subversion, can be purchased at bookstores throughout South Africa & Namibia, ordered at stores internationally via Ingram Distribution, or purchased online from Amazon, Apple, Takealot, Loot or www.vindigopress.com.

WWW.VINDIGOPRESS.COM